

Gerard Leslie AubertAssociate Vice President, Health and Information Technology
University of Central Florida, College of Medicine

Gerard Leslie Aubert has worked in the healthcare industry for over 25 years, at medical centers, universities, and as a private consultant. He has worked in almost every discipline of Information Technology, focused on using IT to transform healthcare – from integrating electronic health records to automating medical practices to data warehousing, reporting, and quality metrics. He has also served as a subject matter expert responsible for developing healthcare service offerings and strategies to improve the quality of patient care. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Business from DePaul University and MBA from Michigan State University.