

Dr. Debra Diaz has been a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist for 22 years and became a Registered Nurse in 1976. She currently works at Jackson Health System/Public Health Trust in Miami, Florida and is a Commander in the US Navy Reserves. Dr. Diaz is the President of the Florida Association of Nurse Anesthetists. She is clinical faculty at the University of Miami for the Student Registered Nurse Anesthetists. She received her BSN from the University of Miami, Master of Health Science in Nurse Anesthesia from the Medical University of South Carolina, and a Doctorate in Nursing Practice with a Specialization in Anesthesiology from Barry University. Her practice at JHS/PHT is at Jackson Memorial Hospital which is the largest hospital in the state of Florida and has the busiest solid organ transplant program. Her duties in the US Navy Reserves include rendering anesthesia care to service members and their families, DoD employees, and members of Congress. While serving on Active Duty she was assigned to three aircraft carriers and was mobilized for duty in OIF/OEF in the Global War on Terrorism to provide anesthesia care to the service members who suffered casualties from Iraq and Afghanistan at Landstuhl Regional Medical Center in Germany. She has one son Christopher Paul Reilly who graduated from UNT with a BS in Audiology.