

Mike McCarthy, Director of Government Programs, 3M

Mike McCarthy has directed 3M Health Information Systems (formerly Treo Solutions) Government Programs since January 2011. In this role, he leads business development and contracting activities through strategic planning, as well as solution development and implementation. Mike is responsible for government program strategies that assist 3M HIS efforts to drive transformation in healthcare through the alignment, collaboration and transparency, leveraging enhanced data.