

Claudia Duck Tucker is the Vice President of Government Affairs at Teladoc. She is a nationally recognized policy expert on telemedicine. She is responsible for developing and implementing a comprehensive government affairs strategy to ensure that access, quality and affordability of telemedicine is maintained at both the state and federal levels. She has a history of achieving goals based upon her ability to deepen relationships with decision-makers and conceptualize strategies that produce measurable results. She is a proven leader in building national coalitions and developing innovative solutions with historically polarized groups. Prior to joining Teladoc, she was the Regional Director for America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP) covering the Southeast. In this role she worked with health plans and legislators on a wide array of issues including ACA implementation, pharmacy and telehealth issues, and policy surrounding Managed Medicaid. From 2003-2012, she was the Senior Director of State Government Affairs and Public Policy for Medco Health Solutions with a sixteen state territory. In that capacity she worked with numerous stakeholder and patient advocacy groups, and was instrumental in developing the SOCRxATES concept; an innovative program that partnered with community pharmacists and became a market differentiator for Medco. She has been a healthcare subject matter expert for senior state legislators and staff. Her extensive experience includes working with the Republican Governor's Association, the Democratic Governor's Association, the Democratic Attorneys General Association, Republican Attorneys General Association, American Legislative Exchange Council and the Council of State Governments and numerous state trade organizations and state business councils. Claudia started her career in Government Affairs after serving as Chief of Staff to the Virginia Speaker of the House. Prior to that she was Manager of Domestic and International Distribution for Philip Morris, Inc.

Claudia is a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University and lives in Amherst County, Virginia where she is in her second term as a local elected official. She is also on the Board of Horizon Behavioral Health and the Texas Association of Business. When not traveling, she enjoys life with her husband at Forest Hill, a seventh generation family farm.
